DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 – 4, 7 – 17, and 20 – 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Landsman et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 6,516,338) (Apparatus and Accompanying Methods for Implementing Network Servers for Use in Providing Interstitial Web Advertisements to a Client Computer).

2.1 Regarding claim 1 Landsman discloses a method of distributing software from a server to a client over a computer network, said method comprising:

downloading, from said server to said client, an applet including instructions that provide, on the client, a caching and class loading mechanism (Abstract; col. 12, line 50 – col. 13, line 24; col. 23, lines 42 – 62 “A static Applet Registry class is instantiated automatically by the Transition Sensor at its run time and, by implementing the Applet Registry, provides all inter-applet communication between the Transition Sensor and the AdController applets and their threads.”); and using said caching and class loading mechanism to retrieve said applet instructions provided on the client and load additional applet modules on demand (Abstract; col. 12, line 50 – col. 13, line 24; col. 23, lines 42 – 62).

2.2 Per claim 2, Landsman teaches that said client provides a particular applet execution environment, said downloading step comprises downloading an applet package that has been customized for said particular applet execution environment (Abstract; col. 12, line 50 – col. 13, line 24; col. 23, lines 42 – 62), and said using step includes retrieving and loading additional applet modules not specific to said particular applet execution environment (Abstract; col. 12, line 50 – col. 13, line 24; col. 23, lines 42 – 62).

2.3 Regarding claims 3, 4, 7 - 17, and 20 - 31, the rejection of claims 1 and 2 under 35 USC 102(e) (paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 above) applies fully.
